

TEACHERS

Free Books for Your Classroom!

If you're a 4th-7th grade teacher, visit www.teresafunke.com to sign up to receive a free box of Home-Front Heroes books and activity packets for your students!

Many teachers have told us how little time and resources they have to teach the important lessons of World War II, and many seniors have told us they want to support helping kids learn about this pivotal period in history.

So, we are collecting donations from civic organizations and individuals who want to help get these books into the hands of late elementary and middle school children.

As we gather donations, reading group sets of 10 books or classroom sets of 30 books will be given to classroom teachers free of charge. The kits include lesson plans, student activities and a special gift from the author.

We have already donated more than 55 kits to classrooms across the country--more than 25 in Colorado schools alone. Teachers are reporting that both the books and lesson plans are excellent.

This makes the Home-Front Heroes characters excellent models of citizenship and responsibility.

ABOUT THE BOOKS

Doing My Part is a 2008 Colorado Book Award Finalist!

"This lovely coming-of age novel for middle grade readers details the daily struggles of young people during WWII and captures the essence of eternal themes such as friendship and loyalty."—Laura Frizol, Director, LaSalle Public Library

The No-No Boys is a 2009

Colorado Book Award Finalist that tells the story of a Japanese-American boy interned at Tule Lake Relocation Center.

V for Victory New in 2009!

12-year-old Miguel Montoya feels left out of the war until he meets a wounded veteran who needs his help.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Teresa R. Funke lives in Fort Collins and writes historical fiction based on the true stories of people she interviews. She is available for classroom visits and assemblies about writing, World War II and character education.

HOW TO SIGN UP

Visit the Teachers page at www.teresafunke.com and sign up today!

Do You Have a Retiring Teacher, Principal or Volunteer? Honor him/her with a gift that gives back to your whole student body! Our popular Do Your Part School Kits provide 30 books and teaching materials to your school and can be labeled with the name of your honoree. Find out more at www.teresafunke.com/schoolkits.

Teresa Funke & Company * 309 East Mulberry Street * Ft. Collins, CO 80524
E-mail: ffcinfo@teresafunke.com Phone: 970-672-4886