

Author Teresa Funke Visited Our School!

Visit date: _____ Book orders due: _____

Teresa R. Funke writes fiction based on true stories. She came to visit our school to speak and teach us about writing and World War II. Below, please find an order form to purchase Teresa's books for the adults, teens, and children in your lives. This is a fundraiser with 20% of all sales coming back to our school! Teresa will sign each book. Ask your children what they learned from Teresa's visit and tell them some of your own family history.

	Wave Me Good-bye (children's novel for ages 9 and up) As the only Jewish girl in her New York neighborhood, Miriam Liebler has a lot on her mind. Her brother will soon join the fight and her Jewish relatives have simply disappeared. No one understands her worries until she meets an English orphan boy brought to America to escape the deadly bombings in London. Will their friendship survive, though, when trouble brews? New in 2012!	$7.95
	Doing My Part (children's novel for ages 9 and up) When Helen Marshall's mother is hurt and can't work and her favorite cousin ships off to fight in World War II, Helen takes a job at a war factory to support her family. When she steps up to help a mysterious German immigrant, she realizes the true sacrifices of war. 2008 Colorado Book Award Finalist.	$7.95
	The No-No Boys (children's novel for ages 9 and up) Tai Shimoda's family has lost everything. Like many other Japanese-Americans at the start of World War II, Tai's family has been forced to leave their home and move to a desolate camp surrounded by barbed wire. When Tai's brother joins the No-Nos to protest their treatment, Tai must decide where he stands. 2009 Colorado Book Award Finalist.	$7.95
	V for Victory (children's novel for ages 9 and up) Miguel Montoya feels left behind. His older siblings are doing their part for the war effort, but all he's allowed to do is stock shelves in the family grocery store and watch his little nephew. All of that changes when he meets a wounded veteran who needs his help, and on the day his family needs him most, it is Miguel who must do his part to save his nephew. 2010 Colorado Book Award Finalist.	$7.95
