

AR Test War on a Sunday Morning

By Teresa R. Funke

1. When Rose moves to a new place she likes to “draw the things that seem most important” to her new home. In the opening scene she is drawing something in her notebook. What is she drawing?
  - a. The palm trees swaying in the wind like hula dancers.
  - b. The Hawaiian sunset over the ocean.
  - c. A harbor full of naval ships and submarines.
  - d. A portrait of her dad in his naval uniform.

2. What activity are Rose and her friends enjoying the night before the attack on Pearl Harbor?
  - a. Playing pool down at the Rec room on the base.
  - b. Attending a dance with a jitterbug contest.
  - c. Riding bikes along the harbor.
  - d. Swimming in the waves at the beach.

3. How does Rose know ahead of time these are the fighter attack planes for the Japanese?
  - a. They are painted all black and the pilots are not visible.
  - b. The planes are larger than U.S. planes.
  - c. They are flying in spiraling loop-de-loop patterns and coming in fast like fighter jets.
  - d. The pilot is wearing goggles and a white scarf and has red circles painted under the wings of the plane.

4. What does Rose have or do that helps her cope with the fear and worry about her father and her brother in the midst of the attack?
  - a. Her sketchbook and her pencil to draw pictures of the events.
  - b. Her special blanket that she wraps around herself to calm her nerves.
  - c. A locket she wears with a picture of her dad.
  - d. She whistles to the tune “Somewhere Over the Rainbow” when she’s scared.

5. Late at night when Rose is working on one of her drawings, she hears a noise at the door and goes to check what it is. What is it?

- a. A soldier who came to check on Rose and her family.
  - b. A stray dog.
  - c. A neighbor asking for shelter.
  - d. The wind knocking a tree branch against their porch.
6. When two marines show up in front of their duplex, and one looks like he is stationing himself there, what does her mom tell Rose to do?
- a. Run upstairs and hide in the bathroom under the mattress.
  - b. Bring him a cup of coffee.
  - c. Stay near her and lay low for her own protection.
  - d. She shrugs and tells her to ignore them.
7. When the soldier sees Rose's friend Jimmy, what happens?
- a. He mistakes Jimmy for her brother whom they've been on the lookout for.
  - b. He thinks Jimmy is a spy and arrests him.
  - c. He assumes Jimmy is Japanese, though he's really Chinese, and points a gun at him.
  - d. He doesn't pay mind to Jimmy at all, other than to ask him to bring him some water.
8. What is happening to some of the people in the Japanese community in Hawaii that has Rose so concerned?
- a. They are being forced to stay inside and keep out of sight after the attack.
  - b. They are being threatened by the local citizens.
  - c. Some are being arrested and accused of helping the enemy.
  - d. They have all run to the hills to hide.

9. What is Rose's plan to try to help June's family?
  - a. She gets a ride into town to try to find answers on her own.
  - b. She uses Tippy as a diversion and escapes to go check on June's dad who is being held captive by the authorities.
  - c. She convinces her brother to give her the money he owes Jimmy so she can pay someone to help her find her friend's father.
  - d. She uses her dad's official naval letterhead to write a note and pretends to be a messenger to get a message to June's father.

10. What helps Rose feel safe and secure after everything that's happened?
  - a. The fact that she isn't grounded for a month after everything she's done.
  - b. She's happy because the war is over and they can get back to a normal life.
  - c. The woman who owned Tippy agrees to let Rose find a home for him.
  - d. She wants a new bike, and her parents get her one for Christmas.
